Updated Information on Serial Rapist

- Jesus Alalid Madrid-Dubon, L/m/7-17-86, is currently being booked into Lew Sterrett on one count of Aggravated Sexual Assault. His bond is 1 million.
- This arrest is based upon his actions with the juvenile victim on February 4th, Service Number 29336-B. Madrid-Dubon forced the victim into his car at gunpoint and sexually assaulted her in the 7600 block of Sovereign Row.
- DPD will file an additional Aggravated Sexual Assault on Madrid-Dubon early next week for his actions on January 7, 2014, Service Number 5703-B. In that case, Madrid-Dubon established communications with the victim using social media to arrange a meeting in person. He then used a weapon to force the victim to have sex at the same location.
- Physical Evidence was collected in both of these offenses and submitted for analysis. Results are pending.
- The first connected offense which occurred on August 24, 2013, Service Number 234323-A, remains under investigation.
- Patrol Officers from the Northwest Division identified a possible link between the 2014 offenses as Sex Assault and Child Exploitation detectives were conducting follow-up investigations. In addition to the geographic location in which assaults took place, detectives identified specific actions taken by Madrid-Dubon consistent in both offenses. Then Sex Assault detectives, responsible for investigating adult sexual assault victims, and Child Exploitation detectives, responsible for investigating circumstances where the victim is a juvenile, worked collaboratively throughout the day and night to establish the information used to arrest Madrid-Dubon.
- Madrid-Dubon was arrested without incident today at 6:25am by DPD members of the North Texas Fugitive Task Force at his residence in Irving.
- Madrid-Dubon also has warrants from Irving Police Department and the Bastrop County Sheriff's Office.
